Chandigarh.

To

The Chief Administrator,
Haryana State Agril. Marketing Board,
Sector-6, Panchkula.

Memo.No.2Q 473 dated 12.9.2000.

Sub:- Empanement of Advocates to be engaged by the Boards/Corporation in the High Court/Tribunals/
Commissions and other Authorities.

Reference to the subject cited above and in continuation of the Govt. instructions No.14/5/96-3JJ(I) dated 25.8.99 and subsequent letter No.8843 dated 24.3.2000 of this office.

A panel of lawyers has been drawn to defend court cases on behalf of your organisation and the same is enclosed herewith. In future, all court cases in the Hon'ble High Court/Tribunals/Commissions and other Authorities are to be entrusted to these empanelled lawyers.

It has further been decided that the cases of Boards/corporations shall be marked to a Lawyer on Panel by the office of Advocate General, Haryana only with a view to ensure that:

- a) The case is entrusted keeping in view its nature and subject matter to an Advocate who is also specialised/well conversant with such subject matter;
- b) There is equitable distribution of cases amongst
all the empanelled Advocates.

It is, therefore, directed that while enclosed panel may be kept for your reference and record and for seeking legal opinion/Advice from the empanelled Advocate
